

2007 NIDA/CPDD GRANT WRITING WORKSHOP

QUEBEC CITY, CANADA

The National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA) and the College on Problems of Drug Dependence (CPDD) are sponsoring a grant writing workshop that will be held during this year's annual CPDD conference in Quebec City, Canada (June 16–21, 2007). This workshop is designed to orient new research investigators to NIDA and the grant process. To be eligible, you must have received your doctorate degree after 2001. The agenda will be posted in the coming weeks.

The Grant Writing Workshop is limited to the first 50 approved respondents who email or fax this application by May 30, 2007. Please note that only those individuals who have pre-registered and are accepted will be allowed to attend this workshop. Unfortunately, exceptions will not be made at the door, as pre-prepared materials will be available only for approved, pre-registered attendees.

If you are interested in registering for this workshop, please complete the attached application form and fax the application form to Dr. Mimi Ghim (see contact information included in the application form). You will be notified by email (or fax) if you have been selected to attend and pre-registration information will follow.

The deadline for applying is May 30, 2007 at 5:00 PM (Eastern time). Thank you for your interest in learning more about NIDA's grant writing process.
